MADE A BRAVE FIGHT

WAR CORRESPONDENT TELLS HOW McDOUGAL'S PLATOON FOUGHT.

STOOD GRILLING FIRE

Desperate Hand-to-hand Encounter With Germans Five to One Against Them.

The fate of Frank E. McDougal, reported "captured or missing" in France, is as yet unknown, his parents, Judge and Mrs. R. L. McDougal, having had no further word from army headquarters. That the boys fought valiantly is made known in the report given herewith by Junius B. Wood, special correspondent of the Chicago News, who was with the American troops at the front. In his story to the News Mr. Wood, tells in detail just how the platoon of men, young McDougal being one of the number, were cut off from their command. His report says:

A platoon of twenty-five Americans covering the apex of a trench and shut off from re-enforcements by a "box barrage" carried out by the full strength of the German heavy batter-

Maryville Merchant Badly Hurt When Machine Turned Over—Was Visiting at El Dorado, Kan.

Harvey L. Haines, proprietor of the Haines Store, was seriously hurt in an automobile accident at El Dorado, Kan., Sunday while on a visit with friends and relatives. The only definite news of the accident came yesterday evening in a telegram from Mr. Haines in which he said that he was in an auto wreck, the car having turned over ten or fifteen times, breaking a wrist, caving in a knee, knocking a piece from his lip and otherwise bruising him up, but that otherwise he was all right." He advised that he would be at home within the next day or two.

'OVER THE TOP' NOW

MARYVILLE WILL RAISE FULL QUOTA OF Y. M. C. A. FUND.

HOPKINS COMES IN, TOO

Chairman Donlin Says Goal of $1,000 Has Been Set—Names of Those Who Have Subscribed.

It seems certain now that Nodaway county is not going to be a laggard, or will not put another blot on its record. The drive for the Y. M. C. A. war fund began officially on Sunday when $3,700 was raised at the mass meeting. The response from the meeting, at which there were not half as many people present as there should have been of those able to give, was such as to indicate that Polk township is going to do its part.

Before breakfast Monday morning Frank Barrett, chairman at Skidmore, telephoned that Monroe township had raised its quota. One man Saturday gave more than half of Green township's quota.

A letter this morning from Ed C. Donlin, chairman of Hopkins township whose quota is $650, said: "We have set our stakes at $1,000 and will be disappointed if we do not get more. The time has come when we cannot be mealy mouthed and the people of this community must get the spirit of assistance to worthy war causes."

In the course of the next day or two an organized campaign will be made for pledges from residents of Polk township and every one will be given an opportunity to contribute. It is urged that all who are able give promptly and liberally, regarding the great privilege to give to this splendid cause to provide for our boys in the war camps and at the front, the things they miss most, while fighting or suffering from the sacrifice they have made.

A telegram received this morning by County Chairman S. G. Gillam, from St. Louis advises the gift of $50,000 from a member of the Busch family who is now in Europe and knows what the Y. M. C. A. is doing.

Z. R. Alexander, chairman at Elmo announces today that the banks and business houses there will probably close on Thursday afternoon in order

ROYALTY ON BATTLE FRONT

Rulers of England, Italy, Germany, Austria and Bulgaria Watch Progress of Struggle.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Paris, Nov. 13.—There is a great gathering of royalty on Italian battle fields today to watch the progress of war. King George of England is represented by the Prince of Wales and King Victor Emanuel of Italy is with his troops too. On the enemy side is Emperor William and Emperor Charles, of Austria with King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, behind the Teutonic lines, having just finished inspecting the former Italian base Udine, now in the hands of the Germans.

A RED CROSS RECORD

500 WOMEN WILL SOON BE AT WORK IN NODAWAY COUNTY.

SUPPLY SHIP WAS LOST

Need for Bandages and Dressings Is Urgent—Ravenwood Auxiliary Had to "Wheel" Fuel.

Red Cross workers in Maryville and Nodaway county are getting ready to establish a record that few rural counties in the state will be ready to equal. With the completion of the courses in making bandages and dressing by the class of thirty-six who have been dilligently at work at Red Cross headquarters at the public library for nearly two weeks, five hundred women in various parts of the county will be hard at work next week making hospital supplies for the army in France and Italy. Each member of the present class, the course of instruction ending today, will in turn teach a class of from twenty to forty in the various auxiliaries.

The need for supplies just at present is most urgent, too. One of the ships recently destroyed enroute to Europe carried twenty million bandages and dressing that had been shipped to Red Cross headquarters in France. The ship's cargo went to the bottom and an appeal has gone out to the chapters to

A NEW ROAD NORTH

WOULD INCLUDE MARYVILLE ON K. C.-TWIN CITIES ROUTE.

TIB IS LOGGING TRAIL

In Co-Operation With State Highway Departments It Will Eventually be Hard Surfaced.

Maryville would like to "get on" the newly planned Queen's Trail highway, now being logged by the Tib Automobile Route Book Co., the new direct road from Kansas City to the Twin Cities. C. Harrison Minor of Kansas City, vice-president of the company and A. G. Tuberg, field representative, were in Maryville today seeking information as to the best route from here northward, a tentative route having already been laid.

It is the plan of automobilists and good roads enthusiasts, working in co-operation with the state highway departments through which the road will pass to provide a direct road between Kansas City and Minneapolis and St. Paul, affording direct communication from middle west points to the Great Lakes territory. The road would be largely used by tourists from the south who would motor to the northern lakes region.

Messrs. Minor and Tuberg said the new Queen's Trail as logged from Kansas City to the northern cities would eventually be made into a hard surfaced highway and would mean a trans-continental route from northern points to the Gulf.

Mr. Minor and Mr. Tuberg in the official Tib route car left immediately after dinner, going over the north road to Hopkins, from whence they will log the road through Creston, Iowa.

Concerted action on the part of residents along the road through Nodaway county will be of value in establishing this trail as one of the most important roads in the middle west.

Gun in Hands of 3-year-old Was Accidently Discharged.

Lena Sobbing, the 3-year-old daughter of Mrs. Joe Sobbing of Parnell, had the thumb on her left hand shot off Sunday afternoon, when the gun with which she was playing was accidently discharged. The child and her 5-year-old brother, Raymond, were playing alone when the accident occured. A physician was immediately called, and the child's hand was dressed. She is improving at this time.

A. T. STINSON IS IMPROVED.

Takes Sudden Turn for Better Last Night—Mrs. Stinson Near Collapse.

Andrew T. Stinson, who has been seriously ill at his home, 967 South Main street, his life having been despaired of for the past few days, is reported to have taken a slight change for the better this morning and attending physicians have some hope for his recovery. Mrs. Stinson, however, quite worn with suspense is confined to her bed and physicians fear a collapse.

HERE'S THE ANSWER

Statement by Bruce Kennedy That Farmer Is a Slacker, Refuted in Gifts to Y. M. C. A. Fund.

Is the farmer laying down on the job, a slacker in the game, refusing to do his share in bearing the burden in time of war, as Bruce Kennedy, food dictator Hoover's representative says he is?

One answer was found today when S. G. Gillam, county chairman of the Y. M. C. A. fund and district secretary E. M. Claypool went to a public sale near town at noon today where a number of farmers were gathered. They told them of the drive for funds being made and before they had fully learned what was wanted ten and twenty dollar bills came from wallets until Mr. Gillam told them he would refuse any more subscriptions. In ten minutes the farmers had given $345, and there was nothing in the pile less than a ten dollar bill.

KERENSKY WINNER

TROOPS LOYAL TO THE PREMIER ROUT BOLSHEVIKIS.

OFFERED TO SURRENDER

Would Lay Down Arms and Give Themselves Up, but Told Submission Must be Absolute.

Copenhagen, Nov. 13.—A splendid victory fo rthe loyal Russian forces led by Premier Kerensky in the fighting against Bolsheviki around Petrograd, is virtually assured, said Stockholm dispatch today, giving the newspaper "National Tidings," as its authority. The original telegram had been sent from Petrograd to Stockholm Sunday, during the heavy fighting at the Russian capital.

Other dispatches reaching here state that the leaders of the Bolsheviki in Petrograd have offered to lay down their arms and give themselves up to the loyal troops under Premier Kerensky, but that the offer was rejected unless there was an unconditional surrender.

Advices from the Russio-Swedish frontier today give the details of fierce street fighting which raged in Petrograd throughout all of Sunday. Fighting centered along the Nevsky Prospeck, the chief street and the most beautiful thoroughfare in all Europe, where machine guns mounted on the roofs took a prominent part. Most of the population of the city took flight, deserting their homes and business houses to seek refuge in the countryside.

A London cablegram from Stockholm today stated that the announcement had been made by the Kerensky government that the Bolsheviki uprising in Russia had been put down.

The time and money you voluntary give is the real test. Are you proud of Nodaway County's record thus far? No wonder the finger of scorn is already being pointed at us by some. In thinking about it, don't forget that Nodaway County's excess war profits on this year's farm products alone will exceed $2,000,000.00.

WHAT BILLY SUNDAY SAYS.

In one of his meetings at Boston the noted evangelist said, "I believe that every disease can be cured by some weed if we can only discover it. There is not an ailment that God hasn't somewhere an herb growing that will cure that ailment."

The choice medical herbs which will cure women's ailments were discovered more than forty years ago, and have been doing their beneficient work for half a century. Lydia E. Pinkham combined them in convenient form in her famous Vegetable Compound, which is to be found in the drug stores where every ailing woman may conveniently get it at small cost. It does the work!

MADE A BRVVE FIGHT

ies was suddenly attacked in the darkness early Saturday morning by a raiding force of 210 Germans. The fact that there was this number of assailants was learned from a German who became lost during the retreat in the darkness and was taken prisoner by our troops. In this first raid on the American lines three of our men were killed and five were wounded. Twelve are missing. This result was brought about by three hours of grilling barrage fire and half an hour of desperate hand to hand fighting.

I saw the wounded today in the hospital to which they were taken. They told vivid stories of the struggle in the darkness in the battered, muddy trenches before the Germans finally retired, carrying their wounded and dead and driving their prisoners before them.

Fought Until Overpowered.

The Americans had fought until they were overpowered. Their comrades, wounded and alone in the trenches, were unable to go to their rescue. The barrage continued for two hours after the raid, cutting off communication and reenforcements from the rear. One of the wounded managed to fire a rocket as a signal to the American batteries to start a counterbarrage, which was done in time to catch the raiders before they could reach the safety of their own trenches.

The raid was made by Bavarian troops. The Americans bearing the brunt of the attack formed a part of one of the first regiments to take their place in the front line. Though there are indications that a raid on this particular apex of the trenches had been planned since Aug. 1, it so happened that its execution had been deferred from time to time. It occurred a few hours after the American troops had changed relief. These Americans had taken their places in the trenches at 10 o'clock Friday night.

The German batteries started the barrage at 2:50 o'clock Saturday morning and the raiders swept into the trenches half an hour later. Though the affair was a comparatively trivial incident in the great war drama individual deed of heroism shine forth with intensity.

Cut Off From Re-enforcements.

Cut off from re-enforcements, the lieutenant in command, lying unconscious from shell shock, knowing only that the enemy was overwhelming them by greatly superior numbers, the little handful of men fought blindly to the last. No help came until after the merciless artillery fire ceased and only dead and wounded were left.

Under the first sudden hail of the German shells the soggy trenches started to melt like butter. The commanding officer of the platoon, stumbling and climbing through the crumbling trenches, ordered the men into the safety of the dugouts. Only a few men on outpost duty retained the angle of the trench.

One slender, black haired Kansas youth paid no heed to the order to go. The young lieutenant in command had found him frantically digging in the soft earth where a giant shell had leveled the trench. Grabbing the man by his shoulders, the lieutenant pulled him to his feet. The boy's face was cut and bleeding from the impact of stones which his steel helmet had failed to stop. His hands and arms were caked with mud and one eye was nearly closed.

"Get back to the dugouts," shouted the officer amid the din of exploding shells.

Tries to Save His Buried Pal.

"My pal is buried here. The first shell caved the trench in on him," shouted the man in reply as he wrenched himself away.

"You can't get him out; get under cover yourself," ordered the officer, again pulling the young man to his feet.

"I won't leave him. Anyway, I will keep trying," stolidly insisted the soldier.

The lieutenant struggled on, driving others to shelter. In a few minutes he was back at the side of the Kansas boy who was seeking the buried man. Together the two continued the hopeless task. Stones and fragments of shells rained upon their steel helmets and the concussions hurled them upon their faces. They could only crawl a few feet and start again. Five times the lieutenant was thrown down and finally he lay unconscious and exhausted on the spot where he was found by a rescue party just as daylight was breaking. Finally the young Kansan, wounded in the leg, fell by the side of his wounded comrade, whom at last he had succeeded in finding.

Today the boy, propped up on a hospital cot, smiled and blushed when a bustling, bespectacled nurse praised his devotion in risking almost certain death to rescue a possibly dead comrade.

"I could not leave my pal, you know," was all he said.

In another ward I found the man for whom the Kansas soldier had defied death. His voice was weak and his head, his arms and one leg were bandaged. He came from a city in southern Illinois. The events of the night of fire and steel were almost a blank to him. All he remembered was that his friend was at his side when he was entombed alive.

The Kind of a Pal to Have.

"My pal stuck with me," he whispered feebly. "That is the kind of a bunkie to have."

Such was the spirit shown by the young American soldiers. The official statement says that the French are satisfied with the way the Americans held out though vastly outnumbered, but various deeds of heroism are not yet mentioned.

Reports to the army intelligence department from soldier eyewitnesses who faced the onslaught of shell and bayonets in the front line trenches agree that the German force crossed "No man's land" in the darkness unseen and unsuspected. They carried long gaspipes containing high explosives, placed them under and back of the wire entanglements a few yards in front of the American trenches and blew the three lines of wire into the air. The sound of the explosion was not heard amid the din of the shells by the men in the dugouts.

The first the Americans knew that the enemy was in the trenches was when bullets from machine guns and hand grenades rattled and exploded against the dugout entrances. They rushed out, fighting as they came. All was confusion in the darkness. It was impossible to distinguish foe from friend until they grappled.

Shot Is Answer to Question.

"What's up?" shouted a young American to a helmeted form rushing toward him.

A shot was the answer to the question in English. The American fired back and the running form dropped. The next time he shot first and asked questions afterward.

A Texas sergeant now in the hospital received a bullet in his shoulder as he emerged from the dugout. Another bullet in the leg dropped him flat on his back in the trench. He kept firing until his automatic pistol was emptied and the rush of feet over him ceased.

Another man hailing from Michigan was wounded in the arm and

EUREKA SCHOOL WINS PRIZE

Sold Greatest Number of Red Cross Seals of Any School in the County Last Year.

County Superintendent Bert Cooper has received from the Missouri association for the Relief and Control of Tuberculosis a copy of Ritchie's Primer of Sanitation which was awarded as a prize to Eureka school for having sold the greatest number of Red Cross seals of any rural school in the county in last December's campaign of education against tuberculosis. The school was taught by G. O. Riley. The prize will be presented to the school with some ceremony in the near future. 3,598 seals were sold in Nodaway county last year and 4,564,454 in the state. Over a hundred million were sold in the United States, netting over a million dollars. Three hundred million are expected to be sold this December. This tremendous increase is expected on account of the general desire to obviate the great increase in consumption incident to the war. Supt. Cooper says the annual sale of Red Cross seals is heightening the interest of the people of the county in school sanitation and the medical inspection of school children.

speed up the work with all possible haste.

Ladies of the Ravenwood auxiliary report a generous donation of fuel from a patriotic merchant of that town, the gift enabling them to devote their treasury fund to buying supplies to make bandages and dressings. The donation also brought some extra work on the part of the ladies, but they were "game." The coal was given with the stipulation that, as the Red Cross ought to be self-supporting, they should wheel it in barrows to their quarters. Side-wheelers, front-wheelers and even the kid's wagons were pressed into service and a pprocession was soon on its way from the coal bins to auxiliary headquarters and the treasury is intact for purchases of needed supplies.

Twenty-eight Elmo women met last night at the opera house and formed a Red Cross auxiliary. One of their number will be sent to Maryville to take instructions as soon as possible. The officers elected were. Chairman, Mrs. Z. R. Alexander; secretary, Mrs. Yetter, and treasurer, Miss Loy Elrod.

A VERDICT BRINGS ASSAULT

Wm. and Chas. Wilfong of Graham in Jail Following Trial of Case in Ejectment Against Father.

William and Charles Wilfong, residents of the Graham neighborhood, are in the county jail under charge of felonious assault as a sequel to a suit in ejectment in Justice Goodpasture's court there Saturday afternoon.

Dave Gelvin, a Maitland resident, brought suit against Dan Wilfong, father of William and Charles, to displace him from property of the plaintiff on which he was living. There was little or no defense when the case came to trial before Justice Goodpasture and a verdict was given for Gelvin.

When the case was ended the court room was cleared. Wilfong and his boys went down first and hastily staged a reception for Dave and Ernest Gelvin and their foreman, Roach, in which knives, rocks and fists were freely used. Ernest Gelvin was severely cut about the head and hands and his father and Roach were badly beaten with rocks and fists.

Warrants were sworn out for the arrest of William and Charles Wilfong and Sheriff Dowden yesterday brought them to Maryville, where on formal arraignment preliminary trial was waived and bond was fixed at $750 each. Not being able to give it they were turned over to the sheriff and placed in jail.

IDLE MEN TROUBLE MAKERS

A "Visiting Hobo" Says They are Well Dressed Tramps Who Seem to Have Plenty of Money.

Yesterday a hobo came to town, remained long enough to get a meal and a few "exchanges" and pulled out for the southland. There is a difference between hoboes and the tramps; hoboes will work when they are in need of money, but tramps never work and make a living by stealing. The hobo talked a bit. "There are not many hoboes and tramps on the road these days," he said. "There is a small army of idle men in certain sections of the country and these are the fellows who are stirring up a lot of trouble for the government. I found many of them up in the northwest this summer. They are going to give the government a lot of trouble; at least, that is what I judged from the general run of their conversation. These fellows are not like us—they don't stay in camps on the outskirts of a city or town nor do they have to eat 'mulligans.' You would be surprised to know how well dressed they are and they always have money. I don't know where they are getting the 'jack,' but they've got it. But I don't train with these guys; I am going 'legit' with Uncle Sam."

"LITTLE WOMEN" DELIGHTED A LARGE CROWD LAST NIGHT.

THE "RAINBOW COMEDY"

Splendid Cast and Adequate Stage Settings Lent Added Interest—E. Kemp, Fun Man Tonight.

"Little Women" presented by an unusually capable cast delighted a large crowd at the First M. E. church last night and renewed old acquaintance with the Marsh's and the girls, Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy; Laurie, the handsome and debonaire; quaint Professor Bhaer; kindly Mr. Laurence; Aunt March, the crochety, family scold, and old Hannah, who grumbles so much no one else has a chance. No more wholesome play or splendidly balanced company has ever visited Maryville. Just how it was ever presented with the scenery and stage settings as complete as if in a "regular" theatre is one of the mysteries of stage craft.

The absence of programs did not permit the audience to know the players as well as they would have liked, but Mrs. Alcott's lovable characters were transplanted to the stage by careful and loving hands, and the result was one of the most charming and at the same time, thoroughly artistic performances the stage has ever seen. The story, enacted during the stirring war times of that period, brought a fuller realization of the present struggle, and with the sentiment, pathos and refreshing charm, there was combined a heart-gripping, intense, dramatic force that inspired and made the blood tingle.

The program this evening is by Everett Kemp, monologist and entertainer, with characterizations that are true to life. Mr. Kemp puts on pure fun. Everybody likes his funny people, but best of all, they like him. Many have said, "it's worth the price just to hear Kemp laugh," but he interprets the serious side of life in a way to delight the popular as well as literary audience.

It Seems Certain That Nodaway County Is Not To Be a Laggard or Will Not Put Another Blot On Its Record

The drive for the Y. M. C. A. War Work fund officially commenced on Sunday. The response at the mass meeting Sunday afternoon, at which there were not half as many people as there should have been of those able to give, was such as to indicate that Polk township is going to do its part.

Before breakfast Monday morning, Frank Barrett, in charge of Monroe township drive, telephoned that Monroe township had raised its quota.

One man Saturday gave more than half of Green township's quota.

A letter was received this morning from one of the men in charge of the campaign in one of the other townships, the quota of which is $650, in which he says: "We have set our stakes at $1,000.00 and will be disappointed if we do not get more. The time has come when we cannot be mealy mouthed, and the people of this community must get the spirit of assistance to worthy war causes."

In the course of the next day or two an organized campaign for pledges will be made in Polk township and every one given an opportunity to contribute. Let's have the matter all thought over and your mind made up to give liberally and to do so promptly. It should be regarded as a privilege to contribute to this most worthy cause and those who are able to do so and do not, will not be at comfort in their minds as they think about it, and from time to time read of the hardships that our boys who are in the camps and in the fighting field have to suffer.

A telegram received this morning from St. Louis advises us of the pledge of $50,000 by one Missouri man who is now over in France and knows what the Y. M. C. A. is doing.

Studebaker
TRADE-IN-SALE

—yesterday was a big day here! Are YOU going to get in EARLY on this liberal offer?

But Why on earth wait——

A friend of ours told us the other day that he wanted to trade his used car for a new Studebaker within a few months, but he didn't intend to use his cor much this winter and thought he would wait until spring.

And we said to him, as we say to you, WHY ON EARTH WAIT? Prices on new cars are going higher and higher every minute. The best informed authorities agree that new cars will be hard to get at any price before spring. And we showed him definitely and conclusively that it would be very much to his interest to trade in his old car immediately while we could offer him a new Studebaker at its present price.

He looked our cars over, made a few inquiries that showed him other dealers were boosting prices almost weekly without notice and came back to us in a hurry to get his new car while he could take advantage of our peral Trade-In Sale—you know it lasts only a few days.

If you are the owner of a good used car of any one of eight standard makes the same liberal opportunity of this "Trade-In Sale" is open to you. You will be just as anxious to close a deal with us as was this man, once you know all the facts.

Drive the old car around our way today and let us make you an offer.

Kansas City Stock Letter.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 12.—Cattle received today 28,000, market slow but steady, with some weakness on common cows, top steers $14.75. Hogs today 6,000, market steady, top $17.15. Sheep and lambs today 7,000, market 15 to 25 higher, top fat lambs $16.50.

Beef Cattle.

Receipts today contain a very large percentage of canner cattle from the dry districts in the Southwest. Fed cattle continue scarce, though a few droves are beginning to drop in, best here last week $15.60, best here today $14.75. Feeder buyers compete on these good cattle. Pasture cattle are on the medium to common order recently, and particularly today, nothing to speak of worth above $11, common steers downwards to $8, Oklahoma steers $7 to $10.50. Forty cars of Oregon cattle arrived after the noon hour, with sixty cars of Oregon, Idaho and California cattle at feeding stations, for Tuesday and Wednesday here. These far west cattle are beef grades, and should sell well. Good range cows bring $6.75 to $8.50, odd head of heavy Colorados last week up to $10 best natives $10.25, canners lower today, at $5.35 to $5.85.

Stockers and Feeders.

Buyers were plentiful last week, and paid higher prices for feeding steers and best stockers, plain stock steers steady. An unusual number of country buyers are here today, and prices are generally steady, stock steers $6.75 to $9, fancy kinds up to $10, feeding steers $8.50 to $11, weighty steers around $12, with some near finished steers recently to Illinois parties up to $14.75.

Hogs.

Hogs finished last week firm, with all the loss of the first of the week regained and a little more. Prices are steady today, late top $17.55, paid by packers for good heavy hogs, best medium weight hogs $17.50, best lights $17.25, bulk of sales $17 to $17.40. Order buyers were active in the early buying. Chicago had a run of forty thousand today, considerably larger than on recent Mondays, but there is complaint at that market that shippers are sending in too many light hogs. With the market secure, since the minimum price of $15.50 was ordered, feeders are safe in adding weight as an investment, aside from patriotic motives in producing more meat.

Sheep and Lambs.

Packers are taking more interest in fat lambs, but feeding lambs are lower than a week ago. Western Colorado range lambs sold at $16.50 today, 25 cents higher than close of last week, no good fed lambs here today, a few good fed native lambs here last week at close to the top price. Choice feeding lambs are worth around $16, fair to good $16.50. Breeding ewes are still available, and are cheaper than formerly, at $10.50 to $13.75. Goats are selling at $6.50 to $7.25.

J. A. RICKART,
Market Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schweikhardt and children, Orville, Lena, Opal, Glen and Donald were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Burch of Bedison.

FOR RENT—7 room house, completely modern. Inquire Mrs. Thornhill, 605 N. Market St., Hanamo 5342. 13-15*

PASSED OVER BY TOURISTS

Little, Out of the Way Hamlet in Switzerland Preserves Air of Medieval Days.

Gruyeres is one of the few spots in Switzerland where the tourist is few and far between. It is an out of the way little hamlet where many old customs have survived among the peasants, and doubtless sooner or later the visitors will discover it and some one will erect a hotel with 500 rooms on the site of the present inn and parties will be made up in Geneva to watch the peasant dances, and ladies from Texas and Brazil will be taking photographs of the ancient cottages on every corner.

The town clusters in a tiny compact group of houses around the site of the old castle, as is the way of towns that were built in the day when castles were used for protection, and not to exort two franc tips from the visitor. The streets of Gruyeres are narrow and short; they run at unexpected angles and end in little squares and triangles, where daily markets are held. In one of these squares there is an ancient stone carved into hollows of various sizes. At the bottom of each hollow is a stone plug. This stone is the time hallowed village measure for grain and dry produce of all kinds. The seller pours one of the hollows full, and the purchaser pulls out the plug to let the grain run into his basket.

The houses about the little streets might be copies of medieval illustrations, and the dates on many of them go back to medieval times. Each house has its little garden full of simple mountain flowers and in the doorway or in the garden itself the women sit at work on the embroidery which is a famous local product. Gruyeres is known for its embroideries and its cheeses, both of which are strong and guaranteed to wear well.

IGORROTES HAVE ODD HABITS

Use No Cutlery, Grabbing Food Out of a Common Kettle—Presented With a Spoon.

After interviewing me for half an hour the old chief led me to the feast, says Edward S. O'Reilly, describing a visit to the Igorrotes in the World Outlook. Two huge iron kettles were simmering on the fire. One was filled with rice and the other had a kind of Irish stew.

Like all Filipinos, the Igorrot eats with his hands, but I fished a tin spoon out of my saddle pockets and gave them a lesson in table manners. They watched every bite I took with amazement. After the meal was finished, the spoon was passed around and carefully inspected. Seeing that the old chief was greatly interested in this new-fangled instrument, I presented it to him in a neat after-dinner speech.

He accepted it with delight. Having no pockets, he stuck the spoon through a hole in his ear, where he wore it with a jaunty pride.

Then came the dancing. Hour after hour they kept it up, beating their tomtoms and little brass ketties and circling about the fire. They danced in ordered formation, going through evolutions that would have done credit to a Broadway chorus. In the shadow of the huts I could see the women, standing with arms outstretched, chanting in subdued monotone and swaying to the rhythm.

Pidgin English.

The world pidgin, or pidgeon, as connected with English, is a Chinaman's poor attempt to pronounce the word business. Brewer gives it—business, bidginess, bidgen and pigeon. Pigeon English, therefore, means business in English. It is a strange admixture of English, Chinese and Portuguese, and is used in all parts of the far east as a means of communication between the natives and the foreigners. During nearly half a century, and especially since the opening of many ports to Europeans, business relations have developed to such vast proportions and reached into so many channels that some universally understood means of communication became absolutely necessary, and pidgin or pigeon English was the natural result. Its acquirement in the coast ports, at all events, is a matter of importance both with traders and with natives, who seek situations in foreign employ, and it has become popular as a medium of communication.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet — colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

Make Your Own Cough Syrup and Save Money

Better than the ready-made kind. Easily prepared at home.

The finest cough syrup that money can buy, costing only about one-fifth as much as ready-made preparations, can easily be made up at home. The way it takes hold and conquers distressing coughs, throat and chest colds will really make you enthusiastic about it.

Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth). Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Shake thoroughly and it is ready for use. The total cost is about 65 cents and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effectual, pleasant tasting remedy. It keeps perfectly.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the inflamed or swollen throat membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough will disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is known the world over for its prompt healing effect on the throat membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

LABOR DEMANDS PLACE WHEN PEACE CONFERENCES COME.

FIGHT, TO END, HOWEVER

American Federation in Convention Makes Public Peace Program—Urges All Represented.

Buffalo, Nov. 13.—Organized labor, as represented by the American Federation of Labor in annual convention here has taken the lead in enunciating the workers' views of how the war should end. The Executive Council of the Federation, through President Samuel Gompers, yesterday presented to the convention as a whole a series of declarations which the convention is asked to promulgate officially, that would satisfy labor if incorporated in any peace treaty to be negotiated. It was considered certain that these declarations will be adopted substantially as offered. The "Labor Peace Program" was as follows:

"The combination of the free peoples of the world in a common covenant for genuine and practical co-operation to secure justice, and therefore peace, in relations between nations."

"Governments derive their just power from the consent of the governed."

"No political or economic restrictions meant to benefit some nations and to cripple or embarass others."

"No indemnities or reprisals based upon vindictive purposes or deliberate desire to injure, but to right manifest wrongs."

"Recognition of the rights of small nations and of the principle 'No people must be forced under sovereignty under which it does not wish to live.'"

"No territorial changes or adjustment of power except in furtherance of the welfare of the peoples affected and in furtherance of world peace."

"No article or commodity shall be shipped or delivered in international commerce in the production of which children under the age of sixteen have been employed or permitted to work."

"It shall be declared that the basic workday in industry and commerce shall not exceed eight hours."

"In voluntary servitude shall not exist except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted."

"Establishment of trial by jury."

Oppose Premature Peace.

"The basis of reconstruction should be the trade union movements of the various countries," said President Gompers, in reading the report. "We recommend that an international labor conference of representatives of the trade union movements of all countries be held at the same time and place as the world peace congress, that labor may be in touch with plans under consideration and may have the benefit of information and counsel of those participating in the congress."

Labor is not for a premature peace, however. Labor is for war until the purposes of permanent peace are achieved.
